Dear 2023 graduates,

All faculty members of the Institute of Diplomacy and International Studies and I wish to extend our warmest congratulations to all graduates on your auspicious moment. Your efforts, hard work and resilience during the school years have yielded a meaningful outcome that we all are very proud of. This is one of the most important steps towards your bright future. You will have to be prudent, patient, and work harder in the real world in order to achieve your goals. I am confident that your experiences from Rangsit University will help you to succeed in your future careers.

Thank you all for what you have contributed to the Institute and Rangsit University, I wish you all the best.

You all are great students who we are very proud of. Please bring the knowledge, experiences and best practices back to your communities for furthering development and prosperity.

Sincerely,

Mr.Sompong Sanguanbun
